ALEXANDRIA AREA YMCA JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title: Lead Teacher

FLSA Status: Non-Exempt

Reports to: Child Care Director

POSITION SUMMARY:

Under the direction of the Child Care Director, the individual oversees all aspects of the assigned classroom and contributes to the overall goals and mission of the YMCA. Lead Teachers must demonstrate and enforce the core values of caring, honesty, respect, and responsibility and provide for the safety and individual needs of the children.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS:

1. Work with the Child Care management staff to provide a fun, interactive learning environment for all children.
2. Assist Child Care Director and Coordinator when necessary with duties as assigned.
3. Follow Department of Human Services (DHS) Rule 3 regulations regarding child care and YMCA policies. This includes, but is not limited to, standards of maintaining a safe physical environment, staff-to-child ratios, supervision, required documentation, and child guidance methods.
4. In collaboration with other lead staff, develop and implement weekly lesson plans.
5. Obtain required number of annual training hours as determined by DHS through workshops, conferences, in-service trainings, and staff meetings.
6. Guide children's behavior using positive, consistent, developmentally appropriate child guidance methods.
7. Communicate respectfully and professionally with parents/guardians through daily face-to-face conversation, notes, e-mails, conferences, newsletters, calendars, etc.
8. Evaluate and maintain records on children's progress using formal and informal assessment tools.
9. Supervise and assign specific tasks to subordinates in classroom (Assistant Teachers, Aides, Substitute Teachers and Volunteers). Handle internal problems within the room and bring matters to management staff when warranted.
10. Take responsibility for classroom tidiness, equipment, and materials.
11. Be knowledgeable and responsible for implementing emergency procedures.
12. Attend and participate in scheduling parent involvement activities; attend other YMCA functions as necessary.
13. Arrive at work on time and be accountable for given break/lunch time.
